

13th October 2025

Dear Families,

A huge thank you to everyone who joined our Parental Engagement sessions last term.

We are thrilled to share our upcoming Parental Engagement sessions for this Autumn term. These sessions are all about building an even stronger partnership between home and school, because we know that together, we can best support your children's learning journey. Please come along to our first session on Thursday 6th November 2025.
