Dear Families,

The Foxfield Book Amnesty

At Foxfield, we believe that a book is more than just paper and ink, it's a doorway to a new world, a spark for a child's imagination and a vital tool for their growing confidence. Our libraries and classroom book corners are the heart of our school and we love nothing more than seeing our shelves bustling with stories waiting to be discovered.

We have noticed that our library shelves are looking a little less full than usual. Perhaps there is a school book tucked under a bed, one that slid behind the sofa or perhaps a favourite story that has been living on a home bookshelf for a few weeks too long. It happens to the best of us and we completely understand.

To help replenish our collection, we are holding a Book Amnesty. This is a no questions asked opportunity to return any Foxfield books you might find at home that are not currently being used for your child's daily reading.

How to take part:

- Search high and low - under beds, in toy boxes and on bookshelves.
- Bag them up - please place any Foxfield books into a carrier bag.
- Label clearly - write your child's class name clearly on the outside of the bag.
- Drop them off - send the bag in with your child to be handed to their teacher by Friday 22nd May.

To make things a bit more exciting, we are turning this into a school wide challenge. The class that returns the most Foxfield books will win a special prize! Whether it's one book or a whole stack, every single return helps us ensure that all our pupils have access to the wonderful variety of literature they deserve.

Thank you so much for your ongoing support of our school community and for helping us keep the magic of reading alive at Foxfield.

Warm regards,

The Foxfield Team
